C S Balasundaram Iyer, Esq., B A.,

Member of Council, Bangalore

Respected Sir,

We, the residents of Malleswaram, Bangalore most respectfully bring the following few lines to your kind consideration.

We respectfully bring to your kind notice, Sir, that the Municipal authorities were pleased to grant us forty feet of land in the cocoanut avenue road, Malleswaram to construct a Ramamandiram, we in response to our further representation that the extent of land kindly granted to us is not sufficient for the purpose, they were also pleased to promise the further grant of twenty feet of land sooner the work be commenced So with due regard to their promise we laid the foundation in right earnest and have already spent over two hundred rupees only to find our hopes and earnestness being frustrated by a recent endorsement from the Municipal authorities refusing to grant the further extension promised by them

Under these circumstances we appeal to your divine sympathy and generosity to kindly order the grant of thirty feet of land free of cost, The land is available in continuation of the forty feet which has already been granted to us With great hop Sir, that you will be pleased to sympathise with the poor devotees and encourage them in their humble efforts to strengthen and spread devotion to God.

We beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servants,
